Pastor's Corner

Hi everyone! It is my pleasure to introduce you to our new director of religious education, Brianne Dela Cruz! Brianne shares our goal of helping our young people, as well as adults in RCIA, to cultivate their faith and come to know God's love for them. He also shares our mission to evangelize the people of Benicia and beyond! Make sure to welcome him when you see him around Saint Dominic's!

Fr. Andy Opsahl, O.P. - Pastor
frandy@stdombenicia.org 707-335-4668

Born and raised in Milpitas, CA, I grew up actively involved in my home parish, serving in Youth Ministry and Music Ministry. My love for service and my Catholic faith led me to pursue a Bachelor of Arts in both Theology and Catechetics from Franciscan University of Steubenville in Ohio.

Upon graduation, I returned to Northern California, where I continued Music Ministry at various parishes, worked as a Youth Ministry Coordinator at St. Clare Catholic Church in Roseville, and then as a Theology Teacher at Valley of the Sacred Heart Academy in Dixon. All these experiences aided me in deepening my relationship with Jesus Christ and invigorating my passion for service.

My hope and vision for St. Dominic's Religious Education program is (1) to continue the mission by engaging with the culture, proposing the Gospel message, and accompanying others as they personally discover who God is and who He is calling them to be. (2) Just as Jesus was at the center of the Holy Family, my desire is that Jesus becomes the center of all our families by promoting the sacredness of the family and inviting parents to embody the trinitarian love of God in their families. (3) The Sacraments are the heartbeats of the Church. My responsibility is to teach from our worship, to urge others to encounter God in the Mass, and proclaim He is truly present – Body, Blood, Soul, & Divinity – in the Eucharist.

I am grateful to Fr. Andy for offering me this position on his team and to Deacon Errol, who has played a critical role in the lives of many families and individuals. I give all glory to God, and may this position compel me to strive for holiness. Pray for me as I pray for you and serve as your new Director of Religious Education. God bless!
