Pastor's Corner

This Sunday's reading from the Gospel of Luke features the tempting of Jesus in the desert by the Devil. In this passage of scripture, Jesus faces temptation in three different matters, and I wanted to reflect today a bit on the second one. In that temptation, the devil gives Jesus a vision of all of the kingdoms of the world in an instant. "The devil said to him, "I shall give to you all this power and glory; for it has been handed over to me, and I may give it to whomever I wish. All this will be yours, if you worship me." Jesus said to him in reply, "It is written You shall worship the Lord, your God, and him alone shall you serve." It might seem strange for the devil to offer Jesus dominion over all of the kingdoms of the world, given that he is the Son of God and ultimately has dominion over them anyway. However, the devil's offer to Jesus is one that, implicitly, offers Jesus that worldly dominion without him having to do the Father's will, including the Father's will that Jesus offer up his life for the sins of the world – sins that had kept the world enslaved to Satan's power. Satan is tempting Jesus with an easy path to dominion. If Jesus were to succumb to that temptation, however, worldliness would be the limit of his dominion. Basically, the devil is offering Jesus a cheap, dime store version of the power and glory he could and ultimately would have by obeying the Father's will and undergoing his Passion, death, and Resurrection to expiate the sins of humanity and restore it to the Father. In fulfilling that, Jesus ultimately claims his much more exalted rank of King of both Heaven and Earth. And he offers us a share in that reign as members of his body. We should always remember this second temptation of Jesus in the desert when people tempt us with worldly prestige in exchange for abandoning our faith in any way. The offer from such tempters may seem dazzling at first blush, but behind that dazzle is a rotten deal. A share in Christ's eternal reign of both Heaven and Earth is much more desirable. Worldly power and glory, by comparison, is temporary and passes by quickly. It is also often very fraught as others strive to swipe away that worldly power and glory for themselves. On the other hand, a share of the power and glory that comes from being a member of Christ's body is the securest thing there is! Let's reject the cheap, dime store substitute offered to us by the forces of this world!

The tradition of the "St. Joseph Table" of food ("la tavala di San Giuseppe") has its origins in Sicily. Legends from the Middle Ages attributed the end of a devastating drought to a prayer-devotion that the Sicilian people made to St. Joseph. This celebration is a symbolic "thank you" and renewal of the Sicilian people's devotion to St. Joseph.

It's a shared celebration with the entire community where the riches of food are given as alms to the poor: Traditional etiquette is that no one can be turned away from this table.

LENT

YEAR OF HOPE

To see God. To be living stones in His temple. To unite all creation in Christ.

✠ WHY ASHES? ✠

For centuries, Catholic Christians have marked the beginning of the season of Lent by receiving ash on their foreheads on Ash Wednesday. This tradition has its roots in the Old Testament, where wearing ashes was a common sign of repentance for sins, and a sign of one's humility before God. Since Lent is a season of penitential renewal through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, it's appropriate that this ancient sign marks the beginning of the season. The ashes themselves were made from some of the blessed palms (from Palm Sunday last year) our parishioners provided and we burned the week before Ash Wednesday after the 5:00 p.m. Saturday Mass. This symbolically connects the beginning of Lent with its end, connecting our change of heart with Christ's passion, death, and resurrection.

Ashes are distributed as part of the Mass on Ash Wednesday that this is because people "get" something, as they do on Palm Sunday. Perhaps, the appeal is the expression through a physical sign of a desire for interior conversion. The Gospel for Ash Wednesday is a reminder that the real purpose of the season of Lent isn't day, often after the homily. As people approach the priest or other minister, he presses the ashes to their foreheads, and speaks one of two phrases: "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return," or "Repent and believe in the Gospel." In many places, Ash Wednesday services are among the most popular of the whole year—a day that's not even a Holy Day of Obligation.

Cynics have suggest to make public demonstrations of piety — even the wearing of ashes—but to seek conversion of heart.

St. Dominic's Parish will be responsible for filling the hours of 6am to 6pm beginning on the first Wednesday of the vigil March 5th. Please consider giving 1 hour per week praying in the public right of way in front of Planned Parenthood located at 303 Sacramento St. Vallejo, CA. You can sign up online at <https://www.40daysforlife.com/en/vallejo>. You can set up your own login credentials and sign up for any hour of any day during the vigil. Please contact me if you have any questions.

We know 40 Days for Life has made a difference in Vallejo/Benicia & American Canyon. Our volunteers have made extraordinary sacrifices to expose the abortion industry and to protect children and their mothers from abortion." Here are just a few of the positive results of the previous Vallejo campaign(s).

- Nine lives save from abortion that we know of
- Five Catholic Churches are working together
- Approximately 50 volunteers dedicated themselves as prayer warriors & few of them pray at the clinic every Wednesday, Thursday & Friday all year round, rain or shine.

40 Days for Life is a peaceful, highly-focused, non-denominational initiative that focuses on 40 days of prayer and fasting, peaceful vigil at abortion facilities, and grassroots educational outreach. The 40-day time frame is drawn from examples throughout Biblical history. All prayer vigil participants are requested to pray for peace, pledging to conduct themselves in a Christ-like manner at all times.
