Pastor's Corner

This past week has certainly been one of grief as we absorb the loss of our beloved Father David Farrugia. Father David left an imprint on the hearts of several generations in our parish, including those of our young school children who are very much aware of his passing. Most of you knew Father David much longer than I. My first encounter with him happened briefly at St. Mary Magdalene's in Berkeley when I was a layman looking to enter the Dominicans, and I did not meet him again until I came to Benicia as pastor. One quality of Father David's that especially struck me was the delight he took in spending time with parishioners. Before his string of hospital visits began last fall, he was reliably onsite to greet parishioners before and after the Sunday masses. And before his sharp health decline, he was always willing to take masses or confessions impromptu if a need suddenly arose. During my first months at St. Dominic's, as Father David introduced me to families, I would marvel at the level of detailed information he had retained about each family. His room in the rectory was right across from mine, and I would hear him frequently calling folks, one after another, just to say hello and ask if they were doing okay. As Father David's health worsened, the loss of his ability to do much in ministry anymore was a real sadness for him. Our plan, however, was for him to preach at the 11am mass this Sunday to celebrate his sixty-fifth anniversary of priesthood, which Father David was eagerly looking forward to doing. His actual anniversary date was last Tuesday, April 2nd, which meant he died just one day shy of that special occasion. As much as we will all miss Father David, in a deeper sense, I view this as a time to be happy and grateful because Father David had a very holy and blessed death. He prayed consistently throughout the process, and as much as the loss of his energy annoyed him near the end, he kept reiterating that he was having no pain. Right up to his last evening, he was making Fathers Gregory, Vincent, and me laugh. Near the end of that night, when I stopped in to see him, something in his eyes gave me the intuition that he was near the end. I retrieved my holy oil stock and anointed him before going to bed. The next morning, I stopped in to check on him and found that he had gone peacefully in his sleep. St. Dominic's sure was blessed to have so many years with Father David. What a good and holy priest.

LENT

YEAR OF HOPE

To see God. To be living stones in His temple. To unite all creation in Christ.

WHY DO WE VEIL THE STATUES AND IMAGES?

Tradition of the "Hungertuch" or Hunger Cloth

Covering crosses, statues and images or "veiling" with unadorned violet opaque cloths begins on the Saturday before the 5th Sunday of Lent. It is an older custom of the Church that remains an option even to this day. In some places images and statues are actually removed from the church and not simply veiled, but in most places this is not practical. The exact era it began no one is sure, but the origins seem to come from a medieval tradition of the "hunger cloth" which was a huge violet cloth hung in front of the altar to keep the congregation from viewing the altar. Originally Lent was a time that public sinners were "banished" from the church and had to do a public display of penance. Over time the understanding that everyone is a sinner prevailed and sinners were no longer restricted from the liturgy in church, but the hunger cloth gave all attending a "fast of the eyes." The cloths over time changed to smaller sizes and with more decorations. The actual covering of images came later, perhaps continuing that theme of "fasting of the eyes." According to Adolf Adam's The Liturgical Year, At the end of the thirteenth century Bishop William Durandus of Mende (Southern France) explains this custom by the fact that Christ veiled his divinity during his passion. Durandus saw this explanation as implied in this Sunday's gospel (from pre-Vatican II), the concluding sentence of which read: "But Jesus hid himself and left the temple" (John 8:59). Prior to Vatican II the editors of the Schott Missal saw the veiling of crosses and so on as intended "to remind us of the Redeemer's humiliation and thus to imprint the image of the crucified Christ more deeply on our hearts."

MAKING A GOOD CONFESSION

If you haven't gone to confession in a while, Lent is the perfect time to reconcile yourself with God and the Church. Most parishes have communal penance services with prayers and Scripture readings, followed by the opportunity for individual confession (a necessity for absolution of mortal sins). Or you can also make a private appointment with a priest. Preparation for confession should include an examination of conscience, which means you think back on sins you have committed since your last confession. What happens during confession depends on the priest and the person. Most people still start with the formula: "Bless me, Father, for I have sinned. It has been (state the number of months or years) since my last confession." If you can't remember the words or you don't recall how long it's been, don't worry. Just tell the priest it's been a long time, and he will guide you through the process.

What you will experience is the healing gift of God's love, the chance to start over with a clean conscience, and an overwhelming sense of gratitude.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

We know 40 Days for Life has made a difference in Vallejo/Benicia & American Canyon. Our volunteers have made extraordinary sacrifices to expose the abortion industry and to protect children and their mothers from abortion." Here are just a few of the positive results of the previous Vallejo campaign(s).

- Nine lives save from abortion that we know of
- Five Catholic Churches are working together
- Approximately 50 volunteers dedicated themselves as prayer warriors & few of them pray at the clinic every Wednesday, Thursday & Friday all year round, rain or shine.

40 Days for Life is a peaceful, highly-focused, non-denominational initiative that focuses on 40 days of prayer and fasting, peaceful vigil at abortion facilities, and grassroots educational outreach. The 40-day time frame is drawn from examples throughout Biblical history. All prayer vigil participants are requested to pray for peace, pledging to conduct themselves in a Christ-like manner at all times.
