Pastor's Corner

This weekend is the kickoff for Catholic Schools Week, which is a time for prospective new families to visit our local Catholic schools throughout the diocese. We really are blessed to have so many dedicated teachers, as well as administrative professionals at Saint Dominic

School. And they are always happy to collaborate with us Dominicans in a joint effort to continue enhancing the school's Catholic identity and overall faith formation. One feature of Catholic education at our school that sets it apart from many others is the relatively large amount of time all of the kids have to interact with priests and religious. At a minimum, we aim for one of the Dominicans to visit every grade once a week. We build relationships with the kids by learning about what interests them as a way of better engaging them in conversations about the Catholic Faith. We drill the students on various Catholic precepts, like from the Baltimore Catechism, in my case, and offer prizes to make learning fun. The kids also have opportunities to ask us questions. We are also very present at their various extracurricular activities, like sports, theater, science fair, and so forth. This is to help drive home our central message that we are called to integrate our faith into all aspects of our lives, not just relegate it to one hour on Sundays. My prayer is that we are planting seeds that will bear much fruit throughout the kids' lifetimes. Please keep our school kids in your prayers! Happy Catholic Schools Week!

Catechism 102: The Questions That Linger

The Scholastic Project is characterized by the phrase fides quaerens intellectum—faith seeking understanding. Because we cannot love what we do not know, our journey of faith naturally stirs a desire to know more deeply the mystery of God. If this resonates with you, I invite you to join us as we explore the deeper questions of faith that still seek answers in your life.

IRA Giving

If you own a traditional IRA and are over the age of 70 1/2, the IRS requires that you take yearly distributions (MRD's). But did you know you can designate the MRD to St. Dominic's Church and you don't have to pay taxes on the distribution? For more information, visit the IRS website or contact your tax or financial consultant.

Giving Just Got Easier...

We are pleased with the launch of our new giving platform, Pushpay, and want to share other ways that this new platform makes it easy to give a one-time gift ( i.e.: candles, Sacramento Diocesan campaign) or recurring gifts. Giving can be from your smartphone anywhere and anytime!
