Pastor's Corner

The rainy weather did not dampen our Easter exuberance last Sunday! The kids, including my one niece and four nephews, had a blast scrambling around for Easter treasure all over the parish hall floor in our relocated egg hunt. The whole thing was a jubilant free-for-all, although we still made sure to do it in two waves based on age. Children aged five and lower went first, so they would not be trampled by the older ones. Everybody ended up with baskets packed with colorful, deliciously filled eggs. My hope is the little ones will spread the word to their friends! Additionally, a side-benefit of moving the Easter egg hunt to the hall was that those who were in the building for coffee and donuts got some fun entertainment as they watched from the tables. Ideally, Easter egg hunts really do belong outdoors, but last Sunday's success showed there is no reason to frown if rain forces this annual event indoors. The celebratory spirit of Easter can make any environment one heck of a party!

Catechism 102: Sacraments

We are all familiar with the Sacraments—we can list them, we've received many of them—but if someone asked us what is a Sacrament? Or what do they actually do for you? We might feel like a deer caught in the headlights. So, this Q&A session will be the chance for us to grow together, to examine any questions you might have about the seven Sacraments in general or about any particular Sacrament. Please post any questions you have into the Google Form which is linked to the QR code below and see you soon!
